

Press Brake Operator (Spokane Valley)

Compensation: Hourly/D.O.E.

American Alloy LLC. Is a fast paced, growth oriented precision metal fabricating company is in search of an experienced press brake operator. The qualified individual will be able to read blueprints, use precision measuring equipment and set up press brakes. It is suggested that you have at least 5 yrs. set-up experience and a diverse knowledge in the bending of Alum, Stainless and CRS (in thicknesses from .032 to.250) This position requires lifting, bending and standing for long periods.

If you can meet the criteria, we encourage you to reply to this ad and emailing your resume.

American Alloy LLC. is a drug free work place, pre-employment drug screening is mandatory. We have a great benefit package that includes Medical, Dental, Vision, 401k, profit sharing as well as competitive wages and a great work atmosphere.